Report of the Secretary-General

Addendum

II. Replies received from Governments

Nepal

[5 October 2007]

1. The Government of Nepal upholds the principle of non-interference, non-intervention and sovereign equality of States and fully endorses the obligations under the Charter of the United Nations and international law to respect the freedom of international trade and navigation. Consistent with these principles and obligations, Nepal has voted in favour of General Assembly resolutions on ending the economic, commercial and financial embargo imposed against Cuba.

2. The Government of Nepal complies with and is committed to the provisions of the General Assembly resolutions on the issue, including resolution 61/11, and would further like to state that Nepal has no laws or measures that prohibit freedom of trade and navigation with Cuba.
